has flourished since joining your Nursery and has been a big part in his progress. Thank you for all of the support in the past 18 months from EHCP review to Afrid information, and DLA renewal support information, I will ever be so grateful for all you have done. I know my son will miss you all dearly!

- Thank you so much to all of you for the past two years. We couldn't have asked for a better start to A's education. We are very sad her time has come to leave. We will miss you all.
- A wonderful Nursery with brilliant staff. We thank you all for the help and support. H has been happy in your care.
- I would just like to say how grateful me and Dad are for every single one of you, for the support and help throughout O's time with you! The amazing progress he has made with his speech, self-regulation and his education has been incredible and you have all played the biggest part in getting him there. Special thank you to Mrs Staines for your help with everything and your patience for dealing with my never ending anxiety!
- Thank you for everything you have done for J. You're all amazing!! Would recommend to anyone.
- Lovely Nursery, friendly staff, W has loved being at this Nursery.
- All the Teachers at Aclet Close are fantastic. I would recommend this Nursery to anyone. Thank you for all the support.
- Thank you to everyone that has been involved with H's time at Aclet Close Nursery School. You have the basics i.e. routine, behaviour, high standards and organisations at the heart of everything you do and do it all so well. I liked the consistency of all adults saying/doing the same thing. You strive to provide a lovely provision and lovely experiences for all children and that's been so nice to see. Beyond happy and grateful for everything you've done for H. I wish the Nursery and staff all the very best for the future.
- You have all exceeded the level of expectation that you expect from an early years practitioner. I also would like to thank you for the time and effort you have put into A, she has come on leaps and bounds since attending!
